Background:

The International Republican Institute (IRI) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, organization dedicated to advancing freedom and democracy worldwide. Since 1983, IRI has worked to develop democratic institutions and ideals, carrying out a variety of international programs to promote freedom, self-government and the rule of law worldwide. IRI provides technical assistance in the areas of political party strengthening, developing civic institutions and open elections, promoting democratic governance and advancing the rule of law.

IRI conducts democracy and governance projects around the world, including in 23 countries in Africa. IRI is seeking a Long-Term Analyst to support the CEPPS International Election Assessment Mission for the December 2018 Congolese elections and specifically provide expertise on legal implications and legal framework issues around electoral processes.

Period of Performance:

October 21, 2018- January 1, 2019

Statement of Work:

- The LTA will monitor and provide in-depth analysis on any legal implications or framework issues around the elections in line with the National Independent Electoral Commission (CENI) regulations and the laws of the DRC. The LTA will need to develop expert level knowledge of the DRC electoral code, the laws establishing the Congolese CENI and other legislation and electoral regulations (such as decrees, code of conduct, ordinances, and decisions).
- The LTA will report to the Resident Program Director (RPD), continuously monitor CENI, Constitutional Court, government, and other key stakeholder activities related to the elections' legal framework, regularly produce analytical documents and reports on legal issues ahead of the elections, and work closely with the RPD and other LTAs in developing regular reports and analyses. The LTA will also coordinate with the other Kinshasa-based analysts and the long-term analysts (LTAs) to ensure specific analysis is incorporated into findings and recommendations.

- The LTA will be based in Kinshasa with occasional travel to other provinces to gather more information on legal issues and precedents related to the electoral process.

The LTA will also:

- Provide a qualitative and quantitative analysis of key institutions' adherence to the legal framework throughout the electoral process, including the pre-election/campaign, Election Day and immediate post-election environments.
- Prepare briefing materials and talking points on legal framework issues, and other advice to the RPD, LTAs and Short-Term Analysts (STAs) as requested and as necessary.
- When relevant, attend meetings and sessions hosted by the CENI, DRC government, civil society organizations (CSOs), political parties, or other related bodies.
- Work closely with the RPD to ensure that LTAs and STAs are provided guidance, training and briefings to effectively observe legal framework issues in their geographic regions. The LTA may also be required to support the training of domestic observer groups when asked.
- Work closely with the Election Administration Analyst, and Political Environment & Inclusion Analyst to ensure the integration of various issues into the political and campaign environment analysis.
- Maintain regular relations with election analysts of other international observation missions, as well as with international NGOs and local CSOs (including domestic observer groups) who are monitoring legal framework issues.
- Prepare regular reports as stipulated by the RPD analyzing the electoral process as it pertains to the legal framework.
- Ensure thorough legal analysis is integrated into the STAs' training materials and Election Day observation and forms.
- Collaborate with other Analysts and the Core Team to ensure legal issues are streamlined through all reports, including the preliminary election day statements, final assessment reports and any other statements issued by the mission; as well as reports to the donor.
- Travel to regions throughout the DRC as necessary.
- Support the activity of the mission, the RPD, and the other LTAs in any other aspect as necessary.

Technical Bid:

RFQ Terms and Conditions:

1. Prospective Bidders are requested to review clauses incorporated by reference in the section “Notice Listing Contract Clauses Incorporated by Reference”.
2. IRI may reject any or all bids if such is within IRI’s interest.
3. Payment will be made upon receipt of detailed invoices and deliverables/services.
4. Proof of costs incurred, such as but not limited to receipts, pictures and financial documents may be requested during and for up to three years after the end of the contract period.
5. The Bidder’s initial bid should contain the Bidder’s best offer.
6. IRI reserves the right to make multiple contracts or partial contracts if, after considering administrative burden, it is in IRI’s best interest to do so.
7. Discussions with Bidders following the receipt of a bid do not constitute a rejection or counteroffer by IRI.
8. IRI will hold all submissions as confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties. IRI reserves the right to share bids internally, across divisions, for the purposes of evaluating the bids.
9. By submitting a bid, Bidder agrees to comply with all terms, conditions, and provisions included in the solicitation and agreement to the services identified above, and will specifically identify any disagreement with or exceptions to the terms, conditions, and provisions.
10. Bidders confirm that the prices in the bid/proposal/application/quote have been arrived at independently, without any consultation, communication, or agreement with any other bidder or competitor for the purpose of restricting competition.
11. Bidders agree to disclose as part of the bid submission:
  - a. Any close, familial, or financial relationships with IRI staff and agents. For example, the bidder must disclose if a bidder’s mother conducts volunteer trainings for IRI.
  - b. Any family or financial relationship with other bidders submitting bids. For example, if the bidder’s father owns a company that is submitting another bid, the bidder must state this.
  - c. Any other action that might be interpreted as potential conflict of interest.

Evaluation and Award Process:

1. Bids will be evaluated by IRI for compliance with administrative requirements, recent and relevant past performance and experience in performing of similar projects by the Bidder, technical capabilities and proposed technical approach, the qualifications of the personnel for the project, and price. IRI may contact any Bidder for clarification or additional information, but Bidders are advised that IRI intends to evaluate the offers based on the written bids and reserves the right to make decisions based solely on the information provided with the initial bids. IRI may but is not obligated to conduct additional negotiations with the most highly rated Bidders prior to award of a contract, and may at its sole discretion elect to issue contracts to one or more Bidders.

2. Mathematical errors will be corrected in the following manner: If a discrepancy exists between the total price proposed and the total price resulting from multiplying the unit price by the corresponding amounts, then the unit price will prevail and the total price will be corrected. If there were a discrepancy between the numbers written out in words and the amounts in numbers, then the amount expressed in words will prevail. If the Bidder does not accept the correction, the offer will be rejected.
3. IRI may determine that a bid is unacceptable if the prices proposed are materially unbalanced between line items or sub-line items. Unbalanced pricing exists when, despite an acceptable total evaluated price, the price of one or more contract line items is significantly overstated or understated as indicated by the application of cost or price analysis techniques. A bid may be rejected if IRI determines that the lack of balance poses an unacceptable risk.
4. IRI will conduct a source selection based as follows:
IRI intends to make an award to the responsible Offeror based on the following evaluation factors:

Past experience as an legal analyst or observer in Francophone Africa	30
Demonstrated legal research or analysis experience and proven expertise in legal frameworks in electoral processes, preferably in the francophone African context	30
Strong demonstrated French and English written communication skills	20
Price	20
Total	100

IRI intends to evaluate Offerors' proposals in accordance with these factors and make an award to the responsible Offeror whose proposal is most advantageous to the program.

5. If a cost realism analysis is performed, cost realism may be considered in evaluating performance or price.

Submission Instructions:

Bids must be submitted via email to Jennifer Linscott, at jlinscott@iri.org with the subject line "AFRICA2018DRC17o RFQ" by the deadline listed above.

IRI Obligations

Issuance of this RFQ does not constitute a contractual commitment on the part of IRI, nor does it commit IRI to pay for costs incurred in the preparation and submission of a bid.

Notice Listing Contract Clauses Incorporated by Reference

IRI is required to make the Bidder subject to the clauses of the prime award. The resulting agreement incorporates one or more clauses by reference, with the same force and effect as if they were given in full text. Where “flow-down” to the Bidder is appropriate and applicable, references to “USAID” or “Department of State” shall be interpreted to mean “IRI”, “Recipient” to mean “Contractor”, and “Subrecipient” to mean “the Bidder”. Included by reference are 2 C.F.R. 200 and USAID Standard Provisions for Non-US Non-governmental Organizations/US Department of State Standard Terms and Conditions.
