Background:

The International Republican Institute (IRI) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, organization dedicated to advancing freedom and democracy worldwide. Since 1983, IRI has worked to develop democratic institutions and ideals, carrying out a variety of international programs to promote freedom, self-government and the rule of law worldwide. IRI provides technical assistance in the areas of political party strengthening, developing civic institutions and open elections, promoting democratic governance and advancing the rule of law.

The International Republican Institute is an international non-governmental organization and regularly conducts programming activities throughout the Southern African region. IRI is in need of a local consultant for its Mozambique program based out of Maputo to advise, engage stakeholders and implement elections related programmatic activities in Mozambique in addition to providing support as needed and directed by the Resident Program Director (RPD).

Period of Performance:

Date of signature through February 29, 2020.

Statement of Work:

The selected individual will carry out the following scope of work. Additionally, a more detailed work plan will be discussed and agreed upon between the consultant, RPD and IRI Africa Division leadership upon commencement of contract:

- Serve as IRI liaison to local stakeholders and partners in Mozambique;
- Conduct meetings and trainings with individuals in the county;
- Facilitate logistics of all IRI programmatic events in Mozambique including deployment of Long-Term Analysts (LTAs), US Embassy Election Observation Trainings and Political Party Trainings;

- Manage IRI's monitoring, evaluation and learning (MEL) system of program during implementation.
- Serve as the main point of contact for LTAs throughout the duration of their deployment, collect/review LTA drafted weekly reports, share with the RPD and provide any updates and developments.
- Advise on program development and proposal writing that is relevant to the evolving situation in Mozambique;
- Solicit expert training and consultation services for IRI programs in Mozambique as needed and in consultation with the RPD.
- Support the IRI in-country Registration & Identification of a local lawyer to work closely with during the entire process.

Anticipated Deliverables:

- Weekly reports to IRI detailing programmatic activities, MEL, administrative updates and providing analysis of political and security developments for Mozambique. During periods of important/rapidly evolving developments, consultant will provide more frequent analysis at the request of the RPD.
- Written reports from every activity and external outreach to donors and partners conducted by the consultant;
- Other deliverables as set forth in a workplan agreed upon by RPD and the consultant.

IRI will legally own any material produced.

Technical Bid:

All bids submitted to IRI must include:

1. Information addressing your experience in providing each of the services identified in the above Statement of Work and your proposed specific approach for providing those services to IRI under this contract, including sufficient information to determine a clear definition of services as it relates to other providers that may be involved.
2. The name, address, and telephone and facsimile numbers of the bidder (and electronic address if available);
3. Bidders shall provide contact information for a minimum of three professional references with whom the applicant has had a working relationship within the last 24-month period. IRI may contact these individuals.
4. If the Bidder is a U.S. organization/resident, or a foreign organization/resident which has income effectively connected with the conduct of activities in the U.S. or has an office or a place of business or a fiscal paying agent in the U.S., the technical bids must contain Bidder's Taxpayer Identification Number.
5. Bids will not exceed 6 pages (not including cover page), using Times New Roman font, 1" margins.
6. Attachment requirements:
 - CV/Resume
 - Expert Service Rate Form provided at the end of this solicitation. IRI may contact previous clients and employers for professional references and compensation confirmation.

Price Bids must adhere to the following criteria:

IRI will pay directly (to the hotel, airline, train, etc.) for all preapproved travel related expenses including transportation, lodging, and meals for the contractors' participation in IRI activities and events. If it is more feasible for the contractor to use his/her own vehicle for travel to an IRI event, IRI will reimburse the cost of the transportation to the contractor based upon the prescribed formulas used by the funder of the event, calculated according to the kilometers traveled and the type of vehicle used. The daily and hourly rates submitted should, therefore, not include an assumption of costs incurred by the contractor for travel related expenses. All other expenses should be included within the daily and hourly rates, as no other expenses will be covered or reimbursed by IRI. Bids must be submitted in USD payments under any resulting contract will be made in this currency.

Unit	Unit Price	Number of Units	Total
Daily Rate within (Maputo, Mozambique)
Daily Rate outside (Maputo, Mozambique)

RFQ Terms and Conditions:

1. Prospective Bidders are requested to review clauses incorporated by reference in the section "Notice Listing Contract Clauses Incorporated by Reference".
2. IRI may reject any or all bids if such is within IRI's interest.
3. Payment will be made upon receipt of detailed invoices and deliverables/services.
4. Proof of costs incurred, such as but not limited to receipts, pictures and financial documents may be requested during and for up to three years after the end of the contract period.
5. The Bidder's initial bid should contain the Bidder's best offer.
6. IRI reserves the right to make multiple contracts or partial contracts if, after considering administrative burden, it is in IRI's best interest to do so.
7. Discussions with Bidders following the receipt of a bid do not constitute a rejection or counteroffer by IRI.
8. IRI will hold all submissions as confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties. IRI reserves the right to share bids internally, across divisions, for the purposes of evaluating the bids.
9. By submitting a bid, Bidder agrees to comply with all terms, conditions, and provisions included in the solicitation and agreement to the services identified above, and will specifically identify any disagreement with or exceptions to the terms, conditions, and provisions.
10. Bidders confirm that the prices in the bid/proposal/application/quote have been arrived at independently, without any consultation, communication, or agreement with any other bidder or competitor for the purpose of restricting competition.
11. Bidders agree to disclose as part of the bid submission:

- a. Any close, familial, or financial relationships with IRI staff and agents. For example, the bidder must disclose if a bidder's mother conducts volunteer trainings for IRI.
 - b. Any family or financial relationship with other bidders submitting bids. For example, if the bidder's father owns a company that is submitting another bid, the bidder must state this.
 - c. Any other action that might be interpreted as potential conflict of interest.
12. IRI reserves the right to, without prior notice, reduce or cancel one or more programs listed in this RFQ, reject all applications, adjust total funds available, or cancel the RFQ in part or whole. Funding levels in the respective program areas are contingent upon continued funding, grantee performance, and/or reduction, elimination, or reallocation of federal funds by the funder, and in accordance with applicable sections within the grant award and/or agreement. IRI reserves the right to accept or deny any or all applications if IRI determines it is in the best interest to do so.
13. The agreement clauses and standard provisions maybe adjusted to reflect those of the prime award

Evaluation and Award Process:

1. Bids will be evaluated by IRI for compliance with administrative requirements, recent and relevant past performance and experience in performing of similar projects by the Bidder, technical capabilities and proposed technical approach, the qualifications of the personnel for the project, and price. IRI may contact any Bidder for clarification or additional information, but Bidders are advised that IRI intends to evaluate the offers based on the written bids and reserves the right to make decisions based solely on the information provided with the initial bids. IRI may but is not obligated to conduct additional negotiations with the most highly rated Bidders prior to award of a contract, and may at its sole discretion elect to issue contracts to one or more Bidders.
2. Mathematical errors will be corrected in the following manner: If a discrepancy exists between the total price proposed and the total price resulting from multiplying the unit price by the corresponding amounts, then the unit price will prevail and the total price will be corrected. If there were a discrepancy between the numbers written out in words and the amounts in numbers, then the amount expressed in words will prevail. If the Bidder does not accept the correction, the offer will be rejected.
3. IRI may determine that a bid is unacceptable if the prices proposed are materially unbalanced between line items or sub-line items. Unbalanced pricing exists when, despite an acceptable total evaluated price, the price of one or more contract line items is significantly overstated or understated as indicated by the application of cost or price analysis techniques. A bid may be rejected if IRI determines that the lack of balance poses an unacceptable risk.
4. IRI will conduct a source selection based as follows:

IRI intends to make an award to the responsible Offeror based on the following evaluation factors:

- a) Working knowledge of Mozambican politics and history -25 percent

- b) Demonstrated experience working on governance programming in Mozambique, and Southern Africa focused on elections support, political party development, civil society engagement, and traditionally marginalized groups (i.e. women and youth) – 25 percent
- c) Previous experience with program monitoring, evaluation and learning – 15 percent
- d) Ability to communicate in English and Portuguese fluently – 15 percent
- e) Price (Daily Rate) – 20 percent

IRI intends to evaluate Offerors' proposals in accordance with these factors and make an award to the responsible Offeror whose proposal is most advantageous to the program.

5. If a cost realism analysis is performed, cost realism may be considered in evaluating performance or price.

Submission Instructions:

Bids must be submitted via email to Victor Robertazza, at vrobertazza@iri.org with the subject line "AFRICA2019MOZ01o" by the deadline listed above.

IRI Obligations

Issuance of this RFQ does not constitute a contractual commitment on the part of IRI, nor does it commit IRI to pay for costs incurred in the preparation and submission of a bid.

Notice Listing Contract Clauses Incorporated by Reference

IRI is required to make the Bidder subject to the clauses of the prime award. The resulting agreement incorporates one or more clauses by reference, with the same force and effect as if they were given in full text. Where "flow-down" to the Bidder is appropriate and applicable, references to "USAID" or "Department of State" shall be interpreted to mean "IRI", "Recipient" to mean "Contractor", and "Subrecipient" to mean "the Bidder". Included by reference are 2 C.F.R. 200 and USAID Standard Provisions for Non-US Non-governmental Organizations/US Department of State Standard Terms and Conditions.
