Background:

The International Republican Institute (IRI) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, organization dedicated to advancing freedom and democracy worldwide. Since 1983, IRI has worked to develop democratic institutions and ideals, carrying out a variety of international programs to promote freedom, self-government and the rule of law worldwide. IRI provides technical assistance in the areas of political party strengthening, developing civic institutions and open elections, promoting democratic governance and advancing the rule of law.

IRI Benin is seek a Bidder to conduct strategic planning, training, and policy development for registered political parties in Benin to promote legal participation in elections.

Period of Performance: From date of signature through January 31, 2022.

Statement of Work:

The Bidder will provide technical assistance to registered political parties in Benin to enhance their internal democracy based international best practices. This assistance will include training political parties on best practices, developing, modifying and/or adapting internal governance documents, mediating political party dialogues, and mentoring party members through the application of enhanced skills and knowledge provided by the Bidder.

More specifically, the Bidder will conduct the following statement of work:

- Train registered political parties in Benin on developing their internal governance documents—such as short- and long-term strategies, manifestos, internal rules, regulations and management structures, and constitutions—based on best practices for operating democratic political parties. The Bidder will provide a copy of the draft internal governance documents for each political party supported.
- Act as an independent mediator for inter- and intra-party dialogues with registered political parties in Benin to validate and adapt the internal governance documents developed by the Bidder and build consensus around key issues such as the 2023 legislative elections, the 2021 presidential election, candidate selection, internal decision making, the inclusion of marginalized groups, outreach to constituents, and setting up internal structures. The Bidder will provide the attendance list and agenda from each dialogue (disaggregated by gender, party and region) as well as activity reports summarizing the conversations, outputs (including the specific consensus achieved), and recommendations for future potential political party support in Benin.

- Provide mentorship to the political parties as needed as they apply skills and knowledge from the trainings and attempt to use the internal governance documents to refine their day-to-day operations. The Bidder will provide a copy of the modified internal governance documents with justification for why the documents needed to be modified. For each instance of mentorship provided to political parties in Benin (either virtually or in-person), the Bidder must provide a summary of the conversation, including a participant list (disaggregated by gender, age and location).
- Maintain and develop productive working relationships with relevant stakeholders in Benin (government officials, the election commission, political party members, executives, and volunteers, and civil society). The Bidder will provide a contact list with the names and contact information for all stakeholders contacted as part of the contract.
- Produce analytical reports to the Resident Project Director and contribute information to sections of the quarterly and final donor reports.
- Provide logistical assistance to the program staff on the organization of trainings as necessary.
- Travel to and within Benin as necessary in performance of the scope of work above.

Technical Bid:

All bids submitted to IRI must include:

1. Information addressing your experience in providing each of the services identified in the above Statement of Work and your proposed specific approach for providing those services to IRI under this contract, including sufficient information to determine a clear definition of services as it relates to other providers that may be involved.
2. The name, address, and telephone and facsimile numbers of the bidder (and electronic address if available);
3. Bidders shall provide contact information for a minimum of three professional references with whom the applicant has had a working relationship within the last 24-month period. IRI may contact these individuals.
4. If the Bidder is a U.S. organization/resident, or a foreign organization/resident which has income effectively connected with the conduct of activities in the U.S. or has an office or a place of business or a fiscal paying agent in the U.S., the technical bids must contain Bidder's Taxpayer Identification Number.
5. The Bidder must demonstrate past experience working with political parties in Benin and have technical expertise in political party capacity building.
6. Bids will not exceed 5 pages (not including cover page), using Times New Roman font, 1" margins.
7. Attachment requirements:
 - CV/Resume

*IRI would also like to offer a Daily Travel Rate that would account for meals for which IRI will not be responsible for paying directly. The travel rate applies for travels more than 8 hours outside of Cotonou, and overnight.

RFQ Terms and Conditions:

1. Prospective Bidders are requested to review clauses incorporated by reference in the section “Notice Listing Contract Clauses Incorporated by Reference”.
2. IRI may reject any or all bids if such is within IRI’s interest.
3. Payment will be made upon receipt of detailed invoices and deliverables/services.
4. Proof of costs incurred, such as but not limited to receipts, pictures and financial documents may be requested during and for up to three years after the end of the contract period.
5. The Bidder’s initial bid should contain the Bidder’s best offer.
6. IRI reserves the right to make multiple contracts or partial contracts if, after considering administrative burden, it is in IRI’s best interest to do so.
7. Discussions with Bidders following the receipt of a bid do not constitute a rejection or counteroffer by IRI.
8. IRI will hold all submissions as confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties. IRI reserves the right to share bids internally, across divisions, for the purposes of evaluating the bids.
9. By submitting a bid, Bidder agrees to comply with all terms, conditions, and provisions included in the solicitation and agreement to the services identified above and will specifically identify any disagreement with or exceptions to the terms, conditions, and provisions.
10. Bidders confirm that the prices in the bid/proposal/application/quote have been arrived at independently, without any consultation, communication, or agreement with any other bidder or competitor for the purpose of restricting competition.

11. By applying to this RFQ, applicant is certifying that if it is awarded a contract, none of the funds payable under the resulting contract will be used to (1) procure or obtain, extend or renew a contract to procure or obtain; (2) enter into a contract (or extend or renew a contract) to procure; or (3) obtain the equipment, services, or systems that uses covered telecommunications equipment or services as a substantial or essential component of any system, or as critical technology as part of any system in compliance with the National Defense Authorization Act. Covered telecommunications equipment and services mean any of the following:
 - a. Telecommunications equipment produced by Huawei Technologies Company or ZTE Corporation (or any subsidiary or affiliate of such entities).
 - b. For the purpose of public safety, security of government facilities, physical security surveillance of critical infrastructure, and other national security purposes, video surveillance and telecommunications equipment produced by Hytera Communications Corporation, Hangzhou Hikvision Digital Technology Company, or Dahua Technology Company (or any subsidiary or affiliate of such entities).
 - c. Telecommunications or video surveillance services provided by such entities or using such equipment.
 - d. Telecommunications or video surveillance equipment or services produced or provided by an entity that the Secretary of Defense, in consultation with the Director of the National Intelligence or the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, reasonably believes to be an entity owned or controlled by, or otherwise connected to, the government of a covered foreign country. (2 CFR 200.216).
12. Bidders agree to disclose as part of the bid submission:
 - a. Any close, familial, or financial relationships with IRI staff and agents. For example, the bidder must disclose if a bidder's mother conducts volunteer trainings for IRI.
 - b. Any family or financial relationship with other bidders submitting bids. For example, if the bidder's father owns a company that is submitting another bid, the bidder must state this.
 - c. Any other action that might be interpreted as potential conflict of interest.

Evaluation and Award Process:

1. Bids will be evaluated by IRI for compliance with administrative requirements, recent and relevant past performance and experience in performing of similar projects by the Bidder, technical capabilities and proposed technical approach, the qualifications of the personnel for the project, and price. IRI may contact any Bidder for clarification or additional information, but Bidders are advised that IRI intends to evaluate the offers based on the written bids and reserves the right to make decisions based solely on the information provided with the initial bids. IRI may but is not obligated to conduct additional negotiations with the most highly rated Bidders prior to award of a contract and may at its sole discretion elect to issue contracts to one or more Bidders.
2. Mathematical errors will be corrected in the following manner: If a discrepancy exists between the total price proposed and the total price resulting from multiplying the unit price by the corresponding amounts, then the unit price will prevail and the total price will be corrected. If there were a discrepancy between the numbers written out in words and the amounts in numbers, then the amount expressed in words will prevail. If the Bidder does not accept the correction, the offer will be rejected.

3. IRI may determine that a bid is unacceptable if the prices proposed are materially unbalanced between line items or sub-line items. Unbalanced pricing exists when, despite an acceptable total evaluated price, the price of one or more contract line items is significantly overstated or understated as indicated by the application of cost or price analysis techniques. A bid may be rejected if IRI determines that the lack of balance poses an unacceptable risk.

4. IRI will conduct a source selection based as follows:

IRI intends to make an award to the responsible Offeror based on the following evaluation factors:

- a) Compliance with content requested: The extent to which the contractor can fulfill IRI's stated objectives as set out in this RFQ – 30 percent
- b) Past performance and experience in performing similar projects – 50 percent
- c) Price – 20 percent

IRI intends to evaluate Offerors' proposals in accordance with these factors and make an award to the responsible Offeror whose proposal is most advantageous to the program.

5. If a cost realism analysis is performed, cost realism may be considered in evaluating performance or price.

Submission Instructions:

Bids must be submitted via email to Abdul Sanee, asanee@iri.org, with the subject line "AFRICA2021BENIN12o" by the deadline listed above.

IRI Obligations

Issuance of this RFQ does not constitute a contractual commitment on the part of IRI, nor does it commit IRI to pay for costs incurred in the preparation and submission of a bid.

Notice Listing Contract Clauses Incorporated by Reference

IRI is required to make the Bidder subject to the clauses of the prime award. The resulting agreement incorporates one or more clauses by reference, with the same force and effect as if they were given in full text. Where "flow-down" to the Bidder is appropriate and applicable, references to "USAID" or "Department of State" shall be interpreted to mean "IRI", "Recipient" to mean "Contractor", and "Subrecipient" to mean "the Bidder". Included by reference are 2 C.F.R. 200 and USAID Standard Provisions for Non-US Non-governmental Organizations/US Department of State Standard Terms and Conditions.
