Background:

The International Republican Institute (IRI) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, organization dedicated to advancing freedom and democracy worldwide. Since 1983, IRI has worked to develop democratic institutions and ideals, carrying out a variety of international programs to promote freedom, self-government and the rule of law worldwide. IRI provides technical assistance in the areas of political party strengthening, developing civic institutions and open elections, promoting democratic governance and advancing the rule of law.

In Lebanon, IRI provides targeted support to political actors and civil society to help them adjust to the post-election environment. Additionally, IRI uses public opinion data to inform civil society and political parties on citizen priorities with the aim of reducing the gap between citizens and elected officials.

Period of Performance:

October 1, 2018 – January 31, 2019

Statement of Work:

Contractor must be able to:

- Provide training and guided consultations to civil society organizations, members of parliament, political parties, business leaders and other Lebanese stakeholders. Trainings will draw from IRI public polling data and ultimately assist parties, MPs and civil society in building a cohesive post-election vision for their group.
- Submit weekly written reports on key events and meetings, including IRI program activities to include specific data on topics discussed/trained on, recommendations for future activities, number of participants, gender breakdown of participants, etc.
- Conduct meetings with CSOs to support organizations in their efforts to from linkages with other political actors.

- Conduct meetings with newly elected MPs and political party representatives; advising them on how to construct more citizen-responsive platforms and attaining an intimate understanding of their plans and priorities.
- Brief political actors and civil society organizations on polling results.
- Travel locally and internationally depending on the needs of the program.

Technical Bid:

All bids submitted to IRI must include:

- 1. Information addressing your experience in providing each of the services identified in the above Statement of Work and your proposed specific approach for providing those services to IRI under this contract, including sufficient information to determine a clear definition of services as it relates to other providers that may be involved.
- 2. The name, address, and telephone and facsimile numbers of the bidder (and electronic address if available);
- 3. Bidders shall provide contact information for a minimum of three professional references with whom the applicant has had a working relationship within the last 24-month period. IRI may contact these individuals.
- 4. If the Bidder is a U.S. organization/resident, or a foreign organization/resident which has income effectively connected with the conduct of activities in the U.S. or has an office or a place of business or a fiscal paying agent in the U.S., the technical bids must contain Bidder's Taxpayer Identification Number.
- 5. Proposals will not exceed four pages (not including cover page).
- 6. Proposals must contain the following:
 - attached Expert Service Rate Form to include daily rate;
 - updated Resume/CV highlighting experiences with political party and civil society training as well as public opinion polling as well as working with or for civil society organizations;
 - writing sample;
 - A demonstrated contact list identifying key municipal leaders, CSO representatives, and municipal council members and staff; and
 - Copy of identification card.

Price Bids must adhere to the following criteria:

IRI will pay directly to the provider for travel-related expenses that include hotel and airline tickets, if applicable for the contractors' participation in IRI activities and events. The daily rates submitted should, therefore, not include an assumption of the aforementioned costs incurred by the contractor for travel related expenses. Contractor is responsible for local travel expenses, meals and incidentals. All other expenses should be included within the daily rates, as no other expenses will be covered or reimbursed by IRI. Bids must be submitted in USD, payments under any resulting contract will be made in this currency.

RFQ Terms and Conditions:

- 1. Prospective Bidders are requested to review clauses incorporated by reference in the section "Notice Listing Contract Clauses Incorporated by Reference".
- 2. IRI may reject any or all bids if such is within IRI's interest.
- 3. Payment will be made upon receipt of detailed invoices and deliverables/services.
- 4. Proof of costs incurred, such as but not limited to receipts, pictures and financial documents may be requested during and for up to three years after the end of the contract period.
- 5. The Bidder's initial bid should contain the Bidder's best offer.
- 6. IRI reserves the right to make multiple contracts or partial contracts if, after considering administrative burden, it is in IRI's best interest to do so.
- 7. Discussions with Bidders following the receipt of a bid do not constitute a rejection or counteroffer by IRI.
- 8. IRI will hold all submissions as confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties. IRI reserves the right to share bids internally, across divisions, for the purposes of evaluating the bids.
- 9. By submitting a bid, Bidder agrees to comply with all terms, conditions, and provisions included in the solicitation and agreement to the services identified above, and will specifically identify any disagreement with or exceptions to the terms, conditions, and provisions.
- 10. Bidders confirm that the prices in the bid/proposal/application/quote have been arrived at independently, without any consultation, communication, or agreement with any other bidder or competitor for the purpose of restricting competition.
- 11. Bidders agree to disclose as part of the bid submission:
 - a. Any close, familial, or financial relationships with IRI staff and agents. For example, the bidder must disclose if a bidder's mother conducts volunteer trainings for IRI.
 - b. Any family or financial relationship with other bidders submitting bids. For example, if the bidder's father owns a company that is submitting another bid, the bidder must state this.
 - c. Any other action that might be interpreted as potential conflict of interest.

Evaluation and Award Process:

- 1. Bids will be evaluated by IRI for compliance with administrative requirements, recent and relevant past performance and experience in performing of similar projects by the Bidder, technical capabilities and proposed technical approach, the qualifications of the personnel for the project, and price. IRI may contact any Bidder for clarification or additional information, but Bidders are advised that IRI intends to evaluate the offers based on the written bids and reserves the right to make decisions based solely on the information provided with the initial bids. IRI may but is not obligated to conduct additional negotiations with the most highly rated Bidders prior to award of a contract, and may at its sole discretion elect to issue contracts to one or more Bidders.
- 2. Mathematical errors will be corrected in the following manner: If a discrepancy exists between the total price proposed and the total price resulting from multiplying the unit price by the corresponding amounts, then the unit price will prevail and the total price will be corrected. If there were a discrepancy between the numbers written out in words and the amounts in numbers, then the amount expressed in words will prevail. If the Bidder does not accept the correction, the offer will be rejected.

- 3. IRI may determine that a bid is unacceptable if the prices proposed are materially unbalanced between line items or sub-line items. Unbalanced pricing exists when, despite an acceptable total evaluated price, the price of one or more contract line items is significantly overstated or understated as indicated by the application of cost or price analysis techniques. A bid may be rejected if IRI determines that the lack of balance poses an unacceptable risk.
- IRI will conduct a source selection based as follows: IRI intends to make an award to the responsible Offeror based on the following evaluation factors:

Physical presence in Beirut	30
Must reside in or have continual access to Beirut and	30
the surrounding region	30
Experience in performing similar projects	60
Contractor has experience working with political parties and civil society organizations independently and at a high level, particularly in the MENA region	60
Price	10
Total	100

IRI intends to evaluate Offerors' proposals in accordance with these factors and make an award to the responsible Offeror whose proposal is most advantageous to the program.

5. If a cost realism analysis is performed, cost realism may be considered in evaluating performance or price.

Submission Instructions:

Bids must be submitted via email to David Lloyd, at dlloyd@iri.org with the subject line "MENA2018LEB080 RFQ" by the deadline listed above.

IRI Obligations

Issuance of this RFQ does not constitute a contractual commitment on the part of IRI, nor does it commit IRI to pay for costs incurred in the preparation and submission of a bid.

Notice Listing Contract Clauses Incorporated by Reference

IRI is required to make the Bidder subject to the clauses of the prime award. The resulting agreement incorporates one or more clauses by reference, with the same force and effect as if they were given in full text. Where "flow-down" to the Bidder is appropriate and applicable, references to "USAID" or "Department of State" shall be interpreted to mean "IRI", "Recipient" to mean "Contractor", and "Subrecipient" to mean "the Bidder". Included by reference are 2 C.F.R. 200 and USAID Standard Provisions for Non-US Non-governmental Organizations/US Department of State Standard Terms and Conditions.
