Background:

The International Republican Institute (IRI) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, organization dedicated to advancing freedom and democracy worldwide. Since 1983, IRI has worked to develop democratic institutions and ideals, carrying out a variety of international programs to promote freedom, self-government and the rule of law worldwide. IRI provides technical assistance in the areas of political party strengthening, developing civic institutions and open elections, promoting democratic governance and advancing the rule of law.

Specifically, the IRI Syria program works to develop the internal capacity of nascent Syrian civil society organizations (CSOs) to act as advocates for democracy and human rights. IRI helps partner organizations develop the necessary skills to monitor, document and record human rights abuses as well as act as communal leaders engaging in reconciliation efforts. IRI equips CSOs with the skills to develop necessary internal controls such as structure development, internal and external communications, and volunteer outreach and provides trainings on democratic practices, human rights, monitoring and documentation. IRI seeks to empower Syrian CSOs to act as effective public advocates agitating for protection of vulnerable groups, monitoring local civil administration and encouraging Syrian civil society to engage local leaders in reconciliation and conflict mediation efforts.

Period of Performance:

Up to one year from the date of signature.

Statement of Work:

- Politics and governance topics, to include trainings on the basics of democratic political systems, elections, the role and function of political parties, local governance, and citizen-responsive governance practices.
- Peacebuilding topics, to include conflict analysis and resolution, negotiations, human rights, transitional justice and reconciliation, and countering violent extremism.

Additionally, contractors will be required to submit a report after each trip based on the consultations or trainings conducted. Reports will include:
