OBJECTIVES OF THE RESEARCH

Experts (including academia, consumer protection groups, government, civil society organizations, and journalists) on foreign influence will be presented with findings from an IRI poll (currently in progress) and potentially additional case studies and will be asked contextualize the poll data in the country context, and to provide additional insights to the quantitative data.

IRI'S INFORMATIONAL NEEDS

IRI needs to:

1. Contextualize poll findings from an IRI and CID-Gallup poll with expert input and expertise. Experts should provide additional insights into the quantitative data filling out the information with nuance from the sociopolitical and economic history and realities of the country.

METHODOLOGY

The questions above are best addressed by an in-depth interview study. Five (5) in-depth interviews per country, each lasting approximately 60-90 minutes should take place.

- IRI will provide the names and contact information of potential experts in each country. The offeror will be responsible to contact the individuals, recruit them for an interview and/or obtain recommendations from the contacted individual for alternative or additional experts. The offeror will compensate interviewees for their time according to local standards.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE OFFEROR

IRI is cognizant of challenges associated with the Coronavirus. IRI is open to the offeror's recommendations in the proposal to mitigate risks. IRI will accept participant recruitment by phone/online, and online or phone IDIs, as long as the bidder is able to demonstrate that remote fieldwork has been carefully planned for success.

All participants will be required to give written informed consent to participate in this study. IRI will provide draft informed consent language which may be adjusted by the bidder in order to conform to any specific legal requirements in the research country.
- Discussion guide. IRI will provide the draft discussion within two weeks of contract award. The discussion guide may vary from country to country. Offeror will be welcome to offer suggestions for improvement and is expected to format and translate the discussion guide into Spanish (except for Guyana.) IRI reserves the right to review the translation(s.) Once IRI has reviewed the template, some modification of the discussion guide may be required.

- Qualitative Interviewer(s). Offeror will provide a trained and experienced qualitative interviewer for each interview. The interviewer(s) should familiarize him/herself with the topic of discussion prior to the interviews. The interviewer(s) will participate in a training of up to 2 hours with IRI staff.
 - Observation. The Offeror will provide an opportunity for IRI staff to observe the in-depth interviews remotely.
- Recording of in-depth interviews. Audio and/or video record all aspects of research necessary for full and accurate data collection, transcript generation and inclusion of illustrative samples in the final analytical report. Offeror will film focus groups and film should be high quality with clear sound. If participants do not consent to videotaping, audio recordings are acceptable.
- Written summary of in-depth interviews. Offeror will provide a 2-3 page written summary of the in-depth interviews in idiomatic English within one week after the final interview. A template will be provided by IRI.

Evaluation and Award Process

1. IRI may contact any Bidder for clarification or additional information, but Bidders are advised that IRI intends to evaluate the offers based on the written proposals, without discussions, and reserves the right to make decisions based solely on the information provided with the initial proposals. IRI may but is not obligated to conduct additional negotiations with the most highly rated Bidders prior to award of a contract, and may at its sole discretion elect to issue contracts to one or more Bidders.
2. Mathematical errors will be corrected in the following manner: If a discrepancy exists between the total price proposed and the total price resulting from multiplying the unit price by the corresponding amounts, then the unit price will prevail and the total price will be corrected. If there is a discrepancy between the numbers written out in words and the amounts in numbers, then the amount expressed in words will prevail. If the Bidder does not accept the correction, the offer will be rejected.
3. IRI may determine that a proposal is unacceptable if the prices proposed are materially unbalanced between line items or sub-line items. Unbalanced pricing exists when, despite an acceptable total evaluated price, the price of one or more contract line items is significantly overstated or understated as indicated by the application of cost or price analysis techniques. A proposal may be rejected if IRI determines that the lack of balance poses an unacceptable risk.
4. IRI will conduct a source selection based as follows:
IRI intends to make an award to the responsible Bidder based on the following evaluation factors:
 - a) Technical evaluation, (including technical capabilities, proposed technical approach, and personnel qualifications) – 35 percent
 - Capacity to perform Statement of Work- 20 percent
 - Qualitative Research Skills- 15 percent
 - b) Past performance and experience in performing similar projects – 30 percent
 - c) Price – 35 percent

IRI intends to evaluate Bidders' proposals in accordance with these factors and make an award to the responsible Bidder whose proposal is most advantageous to the program.

5. If a cost realism analysis is performed, cost realism may be considered in evaluating performance or price.
