Background:

The International Republican Institute (IRI) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, organization dedicated to advancing freedom and democracy worldwide. Since 1983, IRI has worked to develop democratic institutions and ideals, carrying out a variety of international programs to promote freedom, self-government and the rule of law worldwide. IRI provides technical assistance in the areas of political party strengthening, developing civic institutions and open elections, promoting democratic governance and advancing the rule of law.

IRI's approach to improving democratic governance at the sub-national level focuses on strengthening both the supply and demand sides of the governance equation – the providers of government services, or the elected officials, and the consumers, or citizens of the municipality. Strengthening the capacity of both is necessary to ensuring that the municipal governments are delivering serves that meet the needs of citizens. IRI is seeking a trainer to conduct trainings with both supply and demand side actors at the sub-national level on technical roles, skills, and outreach.

Period of Performance:

One year from the date of signature with the option to extend until July 31, 2020.

Statement of Work

Bidder will support various activities within the local governance team of IRI Jordan and provide consultative services as follows:

- Work alongside IRI staff to develop training materials including elements such as:
 - defining roles and responsibilities of local officials and staff
 - financial and resource management
 - coordination with other government offices,
 - short & long-term planning,
 - transparency, integrity, and
 - citizen outreach and accountability

- strategic communications
- office management
- Conduct trainings for government officials, municipal staff, citizen committees on local governance topics aligned with those listed above. Some trainings will be co-led by IRI staff.
- Produce a post-training report for each training conducted, and a full assessment report for the local governance program. Report must be in English and may include details such as an assessment of the participants capabilities and the overall success of the workshop in the context of IRI's outlined programmatic goals and objectives.
- Provide consultation for partners and participants on the implementation of technical skills if needed.
- Conduct a needs assessment meeting with partners along with IRI staff.
- Monthly meeting with local governance team to discuss work updates.

Qualifications

- Applicants must have a minimum of two years of experience conducting trainings, and /or working specifically on issues related to municipal governance, citizen engagement, political participation.
- Applicants must have a minimum of two years of experience in democratic governance programming.
- Applicants must have at least a basic knowledge of sub-national governance.
- Applicants must hold at least a bachelor's degree from an accredited university.
- Applicant should be able to travel to all 12 governorates in Jordan and stay overnight if needed.

Technical Bid:

All bids submitted to IRI must include:

1. Information addressing your experience in providing each of the services identified in the above Statement of Work and your proposed specific approach for providing those services to IRI under this contract, including sufficient information to determine a clear definition of services as it relates to other providers that may be involved.
2. The name, address, and telephone and facsimile numbers of the bidder (and electronic address if available);
3. Bidders shall provide contact information for a minimum of three professional references with whom the applicant has had a working relationship within the last 24-month period. IRI may contact these individuals.
4. If the Bidder is a U.S. organization/resident, or a foreign organization/resident which has income effectively connected with the conduct of activities in the U.S. or has an office or a place of business or a fiscal paying agent in the U.S., the technical bids must contain Bidder's Taxpayer Identification Number.
5. Bids will not exceed 5 pages (not including cover page), using Times New Roman font, 1" margins.
6. Attachment requirements:
 - CV/Resume

- Expert Service Rate Form provided at the end of this solicitation. IRI may contact previous clients and employers for professional references and compensation confirmation.
7. Bids should include 3 excerpts of activity reports written previously by the Offeror that detail work conducted in the governance field within Jordan.

Price Bids must adhere to the following criteria:

IRI will pay directly (to the hotel and airline) for all preapproved travel related expenses including transportation, lodging, and meals for the contractors' participation in IRI activities and events. The daily and hourly rates submitted should, therefore, not include an assumption of costs incurred by the contractor for travel related expenses. All other expenses should be included within the daily and hourly rates, as no other expenses will be covered or reimbursed by IRI. Bids must be submitted in JOD, payments under any resulting contract will be made in this currency.

Unit	Unit Price	Number of Units	Total
Hourly Rate (less than 8 hours)
Daily Rate (8 hour day)

RFQ Terms and Conditions:

1. Prospective Bidders are requested to review clauses incorporated by reference in the section "Notice Listing Contract Clauses Incorporated by Reference".
2. IRI may reject any or all bids if such is within IRI's interest.
3. Payment will be made upon receipt of detailed invoices and deliverables/services.
4. Proof of costs incurred, such as but not limited to receipts, pictures and financial documents may be requested during and for up to three years after the end of the contract period.
5. The Bidder's initial bid should contain the Bidder's best offer.
6. IRI reserves the right to make multiple contracts or partial contracts if, after considering administrative burden, it is in IRI's best interest to do so.
7. Discussions with Bidders following the receipt of a bid do not constitute a rejection or counteroffer by IRI.
8. IRI will hold all submissions as confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties. IRI reserves the right to share bids internally, across divisions, for the purposes of evaluating the bids.
9. If IRI continues to require the goods and services and the price remains reasonable and within market norms, resulting contract may be renewed with 30 days' notice to the Contractor. Bidder must establish any price increase for each renewal year in the initial bid.
10. By submitting a bid, Bidder agrees to comply with all terms, conditions, and provisions included in the solicitation and agreement to the services identified above, and will specifically identify any disagreement with or exceptions to the terms, conditions, and provisions.
11. Bidders confirm that the prices in the bid/proposal/application/quote have been arrived at independently, without any consultation, communication, or agreement with any other bidder or competitor for the purpose of restricting competition.

12. Bidders agree to disclose as part of the bid submission:

- a. Any close, familial, or financial relationships with IRI staff and agents. For example, the bidder must disclose if a bidder's mother conducts volunteer trainings for IRI.
- b. Any family or financial relationship with other bidders submitting bids. For example, if the bidder's father owns a company that is submitting another bid, the bidder must state this.
- c. Any other action that might be interpreted as potential conflict of interest.

Evaluation and Award Process:

1. Bids will be evaluated by IRI for compliance with administrative requirements, recent and relevant past performance and experience in performing of similar projects by the Bidder, technical capabilities and proposed technical approach, the qualifications of the personnel for the project, and price. IRI may contact any Bidder for clarification or additional information, but Bidders are advised that IRI intends to evaluate the offers based on the written bids and reserves the right to make decisions based solely on the information provided with the initial bids. IRI may but is not obligated to conduct additional negotiations with the most highly rated Bidders prior to award of a contract, and may at its sole discretion elect to issue contracts to one or more Bidders.
2. Mathematical errors will be corrected in the following manner: If a discrepancy exists between the total price proposed and the total price resulting from multiplying the unit price by the corresponding amounts, then the unit price will prevail and the total price will be corrected. If there were a discrepancy between the numbers written out in words and the amounts in numbers, then the amount expressed in words will prevail. If the Bidder does not accept the correction, the offer will be rejected.
3. IRI may determine that a bid is unacceptable if the prices proposed are materially unbalanced between line items or sub-line items. Unbalanced pricing exists when, despite an acceptable total evaluated price, the price of one or more contract line items is significantly overstated or understated as indicated by the application of cost or price analysis techniques. A bid may be rejected if IRI determines that the lack of balance poses an unacceptable risk.
4. IRI intends to make an award to the responsible Offeror based on the following evaluation factors:
 - a) Technical proposal, (including technical capabilities, proposed technical approach, and personnel qualifications such as Arabic & English fluency) – 20 percent
 - b) Past performance and experience in performing similar projects (including experience working on issues related to subnational governance and community engagement) – 40 percent
 - c) Organizational capacity (ability to travel and stay overnight if needed) – 10 percent
 - d) Cost Effectiveness /Price – 30 percent

IRI intends to evaluate Offerors' proposals in accordance with these factors and make an award to the responsible Offeror whose proposal is most advantageous to the program.

5. If a cost realism analysis is performed, cost realism may be considered in evaluating performance or price.

Submission Instructions:

Bids must be submitted via email to Layal Essoh, at lessoh@iri.org with the subject line "MENA2019J04o" by the deadline listed above.

IRI Obligations

Issuance of this RFQ does not constitute a contractual commitment on the part of IRI, nor does it commit IRI to pay for costs incurred in the preparation and submission of a bid.

Notice Listing Contract Clauses Incorporated by Reference

IRI is required to make the Bidder subject to the clauses of the prime award. The resulting agreement incorporates one or more clauses by reference, with the same force and effect as if they were given in full text. Where "flow-down" to the Bidder is appropriate and applicable, references to "USAID" or "Department of State" shall be interpreted to mean "IRI", "Recipient" to mean "Contractor", and "Subrecipient" to mean "the Bidder". Included by reference are 2 C.F.R. 200 and USAID Standard Provisions for Non-US Non-governmental Organizations/US Department of State Standard Terms and Conditions.
