Background

The International Republican Institute (IRI) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, organization dedicated to advancing freedom and democracy worldwide. Since 1983, IRI has worked to develop democratic institutions and ideals, carrying out a variety of international programs to promote freedom, self-government and the rule of law worldwide. IRI provides technical assistance in the areas of political party strengthening, developing civic institutions and open elections, promoting democratic governance and advancing the rule of law.

IRI seeks to work with a public opinion firm to conduct quantitative public opinion polling on violent extremism and community resilience to the phenomenon in northern border communities of Ghana, Côte d'Ivoire, Togo, and Benin and southern border communities of Burkina Faso.

Period of Performance

Date of signature to February 28, 2022.

Statement of Work

Subnational surveys in 5 countries in Africa (Littoral States)

Objectives of the Research:

Public opinion data shall be obtained through a survey of specific areas in Ghana, Côte d'Ivoire, Togo, Benin, and Burkina Faso that is designed to obtain the most accurate possible information about: (a) Risk factors in violent extremism, (b) Trends of violent extremism (c) Conflict government performance.

Research Tasks:

(1) General Responsibilities of Bidder. The bidder shall be responsible for the project design and execution, including the following specific tasks:

- translation, formatting, pretesting, adaptation, and printing of questionnaires (unless using CAPI devices);

- development of a Sampling Plan, to be based a multistage stratified plan; list and explain any geographic or other exclusions; the proposed Sampling Plan will be reviewed by IRI and any further changes agreed upon by IRI and Bidder will be incorporated;
- training supervisors and interviewers;
- arranging and supervising all aspects of fieldwork, including back-checks;
- entering and processing the survey data, including data cleaning and encoding survey responses;
- ascertaining the representativeness of the sample and weighting the data, if necessary;
- Statistical analysis of findings and writing an 3-5 page analytic report to place the findings within the local political and other context.

(2) Questionnaire. IRI will provide a draft questionnaire in English and the bidder will provide input, such as a need for rephrasing certain terms for local context. IRI requests translation into:

List of Countries:

Country	Language(s)
Ghana	Akan, Dagbani, Kasem
Côte d'Ivoire	French, Koulango, Senoufo, Lobi, Diola, Malinke
Togo	French, Ewé, Kabiyé
Benin	French, Bariba, Hausa
Burkina Faso	French, Moore, Diola, Gourmantche, Dagbani, Senoufo

NOTE: These are the languages that IRI believes are necessary to cover the geographic areas detailed in section (3). If the bidder believes some of these are not required, please list your proposed translation languages in the proposal and explain why you believe not all of IRI's listed languages are required. Translations will be reviewed and approved by IRI.

For PAPI, full versions should be printed and interviewers should be allowed to code the questionnaire in the interview language. If CAPI devices are used, at least the main interview language must be programmed into CAPI—only programming in English (unless English is the main interview language) is not sufficient. The questionnaire may call for showcards, which need to be printed in all translated languages. The estimated average interview duration is 45 minutes.

(3) Sample Design. IRI requires a sample of adults n=1,500 per country, age 18 or older. In each country, the sample shall be distributed as follows across specific geographic areas only, as per the following distribution of interviews. Planned exclusions from this sample distribution must be addressed in the proposal.

The sample scenarios outlined above are based on IRI's review of census data. If the bidder has any reason to question the validity of using this data for the sample distribution, it must be raised in the proposal.

The sample shall be drawn using recognized probability methods, all the way down to the selection of the individual respondent at the household level. In the event that any departure from probability sampling methods is recommended by the bidder for all or any part of the survey, the sampling methodologies to be employed shall be described in detail and a rationale for their use shall be provided. IRI's general preferred sampling approach is:

Stage 1: see above for each country

Stage 2: Random selection of Sampling Points (no more than 10 interviews per Sampling Point) within each Stage 1 stratum

Stage 3: Random route household selection within each Sampling Point. Starting point within Sampling Point ideally randomly determined by satellite map or GPS coordinates.

Stage 4: Random selection of respondent within each selected household by KISH grid or last/next birthday method.

A detailed sampling plan (template provided by IRI) shall be submitted to the IRI prior to fieldwork, including a description of the survey coverage, allocation of the sample, description of the sampling frame, description of any stratification criteria to be used, description of the stages of selection and the selections methods to be used at each stage, a definition of the Sampling Points and approximate number of interviews to be conducted within each Sampling Point, the method to be used for selection of the respondent at the household level, an explanation for any divergence from use of the KISH grid for respondent selection, and call-back rules to be employed. It is assumed that the sample will be distributed in proportion to the population of each region or other geographic unit to be surveyed; in the event that the bidder wishes to propose a sample design departing from this principle the proposal should describe the allocation to be used and the reasons for doing so.

(4) Pre-test. The questionnaire shall be pre-tested by the bidder prior to the commencement of any fieldwork. No less than 20 pre-test interviews per country shall be conducted and in surveys with translations into multiple language, no less than 10 interviews per language. The bidder shall provide IRI with a written report of the results of the pre-test, along with details of any problems encountered and suggested remedies, prior to the commencement of any fieldwork.

(5) Fieldwork. Interviews shall be conducted by experienced field workers who shall be thoroughly briefed by bidder prior to commencement of any fieldwork. IRI may send a representative to observe training and/or some interviews. The bidder shall ensure that interviewers are thoroughly familiar with household and respondent selection procedures, call back procedures (at least 3 attempts before substituting a selected respondent), and the structure of the questionnaire, including routing and filtering. Interviewer training shall include practice sessions in administering the questionnaire. All interviewers must have at least completed secondary education and must be fully fluent (reading and speaking) in the language(s) in which they are to administer the interviews. A minimum of 10% of interviews shall be back checked or accompanied by a team supervisor. Fieldwork in all 5 countries must occur simultaneously or very close together.

The interviews shall be face-to-face and they shall be conducted in the home of the respondent. IRI prefers questionnaire administration via CAPI but is open to paper-and-pencil questionnaire administration if CAPI use is not feasible or advisable.

Household and respondent selection must be tracked on a contact tracking sheet or similar—this will be needed to calculate the response rate. Informed consent (oral is acceptable unless country laws require written) must be sought prior to commencing the interview. IRI will provide draft informed consent language to the bidder and this template may be updated by the bidder to conform with the country's legal requirements.

(6) Data Processing. The bidder shall be responsible for data entry with a 10% double-punch standard (if using paper and pencil questionnaires), cleaning, and processing, including development and implementation of a coding scheme for all open-ended questions. The bidder shall supply data to IRI as a clean, fully labeled in English SPSS “*.sav” file with a complete data dictionary of variable names and value labels. There shall be one data record for each respondent and records shall be of fixed length. The bidder shall be responsible for deriving and applying any post-stratification weights required to bring the sample into conformity with the demographic profile of the population at the very least for gender and age groups, as well as any additional weighting factors required to correct for disproportionate allocation, if use. Ideally, IRI would want education groups included in weights, and if available demographic data allows it, those without formal education will be assigned a separately code from those with a least some primary education. If demographic weights were to exceed a factor 1:8, this must be discussed in writing with IRI before the weight is applied. IRI has strict upper limits on post-weighting and requires unweighted samples already generally matching the population’s rough gender and age distribution. For example, an unweighted sample of 65% male and 35% female would not be accepted, even if corrected with post-weights. Weights are to reflect the covered population only—NOT the national population. The bidder can elect to supply IRI with one single dataset for all five countries combined or with different datasets.

Each record shall include a unique respondent ID number, interviewer ID number, interview duration, Sampling Point ID number, interview start and end times, date of interview, GPS coordinates if using CAPI devices capable of capturing this data, and interview language if there is more than one. Each record shall include demographic information about the respondent, including: gender, exact age, and education level.

(7) Technical Report. When delivering data, the bidder shall provide a Technical Report (template provided by IRI) which shall include the following:

- A complete Sampling Plan, including list of PSUs and individual sampling points and number of interviews conducted at each sampling point.
- Details of response rates, including tabulation of unsuccessful interview attempts by sampling point, with reasons for non-response (i.e. respondent refusal, proxy refusal, inability to locate selected respondent, etc.).
- A brief report on survey operations including any practical difficulties encountered in carrying out the survey;
- Estimated sampling error;
- A complete explanation of the weighting scheme including details of how weighting factors were developed and applied, as well as the demographic data on which weights were based (i.e., age, gender, and education distributions in the population);
- any abnormalities encountered during data QC, including but not limited to: suspicious patterns by interviewer ID (e.g. usually fast completion rates), GPS coordinates not matching the selected sampling point, potential contradictions (e.g. respondents who rate a certain politician as highly untrustworthy yet definitely plan on voting for this person), significant data changes of indicators since the previous poll etc.

(8) Analytical Report. The bidder will provide an analytical report of 3-5 pages highlighting key findings from the data and placing these findings within the local context. Mere description of data is not sufficient; the report must contain analysis.

(9) PowerPoint Presentation. The bidder will provide a presentation with a chart for every survey question. A template (already completed with historic data for trend charts if applicable) will be provided by IRI.

(10) Summary of deliverables. The Deliverables to be provided to IRI by the bidder are as follows:

- Sampling Plan
- Pretest report
- Copies of the final questionnaire, as fielded, in English and translations
- A complete data set formatted as SPSS file
- A technical report

- PowerPoint Presentation

(11) Delivery Schedule. Bidder will advise IRI on a feasible timeline for completing work on this project as soon as possible, with the deliverables listed in Section 10 above to be submitted no later than 3 weeks after the conclusion of fieldwork.

(12) Proposals must contain:

- List surveys with similar specifications previously conducted in these countries, with particular emphasis on surveys conducted in the specific geographic units required within each country.

Evaluation and Award Process

1. IRI may contact any Bidder for clarification or additional information, but Bidders are advised that IRI intends to evaluate the offers based on the written proposals, without discussions, and reserves the right to make decisions based solely on the information provided with the initial proposals. IRI may but is not obligated to conduct additional negotiations with the most highly rated Bidders prior to award of a contract, and may at its sole discretion elect to issue contracts to one or more Bidders.
2. Mathematical errors will be corrected in the following manner: If a discrepancy exists between the total price proposed and the total price resulting from multiplying the unit price by the corresponding amounts, then the unit price will prevail and the total price will be corrected. If there is a discrepancy between the numbers written out in words and the amounts in numbers, then the amount expressed in words will prevail. If the Bidder does not accept the correction, the offer will be rejected.
3. IRI may determine that a proposal is unacceptable if the prices proposed are materially unbalanced between line items or sub-line items. Unbalanced pricing exists when, despite an acceptable total evaluated price, the price of one or more contract line items is significantly overstated or understated as indicated by the application of cost or price analysis techniques. A proposal may be rejected if IRI determines that the lack of balance poses an unacceptable risk.
4. IRI will conduct a source selection based as follows:
IRI intends to make an award to the responsible Bidder based on the following evaluation factors:
 - a) Technical evaluation, (including technical capabilities, proposed technical approach, and personnel qualifications) – 35 percent
 - o Sampling Methodology – 15 percent
 - o Capacity to perform Scope of Work –20 percent
 - b) Past performance and experience in performing similar projects – 30 percent
 - o Experience conducting similar subnational CAPI/PAPI projects in Ghana, Côte d'Ivoire, Burkina Faso, Togo, and Benin –30 percent
 - c) Price –35 percent

IRI intends to evaluate Bidders' proposals in accordance with these factors and make an award to the responsible Bidder whose proposal is most advantageous to the program.

5. If a cost realism analysis is performed, cost realism may be considered in evaluating performance or price.
