Falls Short: Incidents of irregularities are systematic and widespread, to the extent that election completely lacks integrity and legitimacy.

Needs Improvement: Election irregularities or deficiencies are common, and integrity and legitimacy of the election is limited.

Adequate: Generally, election held according to legal framework and international standards. Where deficiencies or irregularities exist, they are isolated cases and do not call into question the integrity and legitimacy of the election.

Optimal: Election held according to legal framework and international standards. There were no deficiencies or irregularities observed.
