Background:

The International Republican Institute (IRI) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, organization dedicated to advancing freedom and democracy worldwide. Since 1983, IRI has worked to develop democratic institutions and ideals, carrying out a variety of international programs to promote freedom, self-government and the rule of law worldwide. IRI provides technical assistance in the areas of political party strengthening, developing civic institutions and open elections, promoting democratic governance and advancing the rule of law.

IRI Benin is supporting a citizen observation mission led by its partner, COSCEP, for the 2023 legislative elections, and seeks the support of a citizen election observation expert to provide technical assistance in-person and/or remotely.

Period of Performance: Date of signature to February 28, 2023.

Statement of Work:

- Travel to Benin to provide technical assistance to the citizen election observation mission deployed by IRI partner Coalition des Organisations de la Societe Civile pour les Elections et la Paix (COSCEP) for the 2023 legislative elections in Benin.
- Technical assistance to COSCEP, provided in-person and/or remotely, includes:
  - Develop and adapt as needed at least two checklists for long-term observers monitoring the voter roll publication period, the general pre-election environment, candidate nominations, incidents of violence and other critical incidents, appeal process, and the post-election environment from November 2022-February 2023. IRI will review and approve the checklists before use by the observers.
  - Develop and adapt as needed at least five checklists for short-term observers monitoring the material deployment, the opening and closing of polling units, voting, ballot counting and collation, and critical incidents in January 2023. IRI will review and approve the checklists before use by the observers.
  - Develop reporting timelines for the long- and short-term observers. IRI will review and approve the timelines before use by COSCEP.

- Develop pre/post-tests for the trainings provided during the observation mission. IRI will review and approve the pre/post-tests before use by COSCEP.
- Develop security and communications plans for the citizen observation mission. IRI will review and approve security and communications plans before use by COSCEP.
- Design the mission methodology and structure in line with international principles for election observation. IRI will review and approve the methodology and structure before use by COSCEP.
- Set up the online database for collecting information submitted by the long- and short-term observers via SMS.
- Connect the online database to an SMS-based messaging service.
- Adapt the checklists to the online database so it can successfully receive data from the short- and long-term observers.
- Troubleshoot problems that arise with the online platform and data collection in coordination with IRI in-country staff.
- Train long- and short-term observers as recruited by IRI on the data collection protocols, the roles and responsibilities of observers, reporting timelines, observer codes of conduct, and the methods for transferring information. During the trainings, conduct simulations in coordination with IRI to ensure the observers understand and apply the skills and knowledge acquired by the trainings.
- Train data clerks of the COSCEP mission on their roles and responsibilities and how to use the online data management system.
- Train the COSCEP Secretariat on their roles and responsibilities during the mission.
- Draft an inventory of equipment and supplies that are necessary to complete the observation mission. IRI will review and approve the inventory at the end of the observation mission.
- Draft statements, press releases, and reports to be released by the IRI-supported observation mission based on the data collected by short- and long-term observers and in line with international and regional standards for democratic elections. IRI will review and approve the statements, press releases, and reports before they are published.
- Mentor the observation mission as needed on their advocacy to advance the organization of democratic elections in Benin and the sub-region.
- For an expert contract with an individual only (unless it is a fixed price contract)

Technical Bid:

All bids submitted to IRI must include:

1. Information addressing your experience in providing each of the services identified in the above Statement of Work and your proposed specific approach for providing those services to IRI under this contract, including sufficient information to determine a clear definition of services as it relates to other providers that may be involved.
2. The name, address, and telephone and facsimile numbers of the bidder (and electronic address if available);

3. Bidders shall provide contact information for a minimum of three professional references with whom the applicant has had a working relationship within the last 24-month period. IRI may contact these individuals.
4. If the Bidder is a U.S. organization/resident, or a foreign organization/resident which has income effectively connected with the conduct of activities in the U.S. or has an office or a place of business or a fiscal paying agent in the U.S., the technical bids must contain Bidder's Taxpayer Identification Number.
5. Bids will not exceed 5 pages (not including cover page), using Times New Roman font, 1" margins.
6. Attachment requirements:
  - CV/Resume
  - Expert Service Rate Form provided at the end of this solicitation. IRI may contact previous clients and employers for professional references and compensation confirmation.

Price Bids must adhere to the following criteria:

IRI will pay directly (to the hotel, airline, train, etc.) for all preapproved lodging and airfare expenses for the contractors' participation in IRI activities and events. The daily and/or hourly rates submitted should, therefore, not include an assumption of costs incurred by the contractor for travel-related expenses. All other expenses, including transportation, lodging, and meals should be included within the daily and/or hourly rates, as no other expenses will be covered or reimbursed by IRI. Bids must be submitted in USD, and payments under any resulting contract will be made in this currency.

RFQ Terms and Conditions:

1. Prospective Bidders are requested to review clauses incorporated by reference in the section "Notice Listing Contract Clauses Incorporated by Reference".
2. IRI may reject any or all bids if such is within IRI's interest.
3. Payment will be made upon receipt of detailed invoices and deliverables/services.
4. Proof of costs incurred, such as but not limited to receipts, pictures and financial documents may be requested during and for up to three years after the end of the contract period.
5. The Bidder's initial bid should contain the Bidder's best offer.
6. IRI reserves the right to make multiple contracts or partial contracts if, after considering administrative burden, it is in IRI's best interest to do so.
7. Discussions with Bidders following the receipt of a bid do not constitute a rejection or counteroffer by IRI.
8. IRI will hold all submissions as confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties. IRI reserves the right to share bids internally, across divisions, for the purposes of evaluating the bids.
9. By submitting a bid, Bidder agrees to comply with all terms, conditions, and provisions included in the solicitation and agreement to the services identified above and will specifically identify any disagreement with or exceptions to the terms, conditions, and provisions.

10. Bidders confirm that the prices in the bid/proposal/application/quote have been arrived at independently, without any consultation, communication, or agreement with any other bidder or competitor for the purpose of restricting competition.
11. By applying to this RFQ, applicant is certifying that if it is awarded a contract, none of funds payable under the resulting contract will be used to (1) procure or obtain, extend or renew a contract to procure or obtain; (2) enter into a contract (or extend or renew a contract) to procure; or (3) obtain the equipment, services, or systems that uses covered telecommunications equipment or services as a substantial or essential component of any system, or as critical technology as part of any system in compliance with the National Defense Authorization Act. Covered telecommunications equipment and services mean any of the following:
  - a. Telecommunications equipment produced by Huawei Technologies Company or ZTE Corporation (or any subsidiary or affiliate of such entities).
  - b. For the purpose of public safety, security of government facilities, physical security surveillance of critical infrastructure, and other national security purposes, video surveillance and telecommunications equipment produced by Hytera Communications Corporation, Hangzhou Hikvision Digital Technology Company, or Dahua Technology Company (or any subsidiary or affiliate of such entities).
  - c. Telecommunications or video surveillance services provided by such entities or using such equipment.
  - d. Telecommunications or video surveillance equipment or services produced or provided by an entity that the Secretary of Defense, in consultation with the Director of the National Intelligence or the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, reasonably believes to be an entity owned or controlled by, or otherwise connected to, the government of a covered foreign country. (2 CFR 200.216).
12. Bidders agree to disclose as part of the bid submission:
  - a. Any close, familial, or financial relationships with IRI staff and agents. For example, the bidder must disclose if a bidder's mother conducts volunteer trainings for IRI.
  - b. Any family or financial relationship with other bidders submitting bids. For example, if the bidder's father owns a company that is submitting another bid, the bidder must state this.
  - c. Any other action that might be interpreted as potential conflict of interest.

Evaluation and Award Process:

1. Bids will be evaluated by IRI for compliance with administrative requirements, recent and relevant past performance and experience in performing of similar projects by the Bidder, technical capabilities and proposed technical approach, the qualifications of the personnel for the project, and price. IRI may contact any Bidder for clarification or additional information, but Bidders are advised that IRI intends to evaluate the offers based on the written bids and reserves the right to make decisions based solely on the information provided with the initial bids. IRI may but is not obligated to conduct additional negotiations with the most highly rated Bidders prior to award of a contract and may at its sole discretion elect to issue contracts to one or more Bidders.

2. Mathematical errors will be corrected in the following manner: If a discrepancy exists between the total price proposed and the total price resulting from multiplying the unit price by the corresponding amounts, then the unit price will prevail and the total price will be corrected. If there were a discrepancy between the numbers written out in words and the amounts in numbers, then the amount expressed in words will prevail. If the Bidder does not accept the correction, the offer will be rejected.
3. IRI may determine that a bid is unacceptable if the prices proposed are materially unbalanced between line items or sub-line items. Unbalanced pricing exists when, despite an acceptable total evaluated price, the price of one or more contract line items is significantly overstated or understated as indicated by the application of cost or price analysis techniques. A bid may be rejected if IRI determines that the lack of balance poses an unacceptable risk.
4. IRI will conduct a source selection based as follows:
IRI intends to make an award to the responsible Offeror based on the following evaluation factors:
  - a) Technical evaluation, (including technical capabilities, proposed technical approach, and personnel qualifications) – 50 percent
  - b) Past performance and experience in performing similar projects – 30 percent
  - c) Price – 20 percent

IRI intends to evaluate Offerors' proposals in accordance with these factors and make an award to the responsible Offeror whose proposal is most advantageous to the program.

5. If a cost realism analysis is performed, cost realism may be considered in evaluating performance or price.

Submission Instructions:

Bids must be submitted via email to Alyssa Harvie, aharvie@iri.org with the subject line "AFRICA2022Benin06o" by the deadline listed above.

IRI Obligations

Issuance of this RFQ does not constitute a contractual commitment on the part of IRI, nor does it commit IRI to pay for costs incurred in the preparation and submission of a bid.

Notice Listing Contract Clauses Incorporated by Reference

IRI is required to make the Bidder subject to the clauses of the prime award. The resulting agreement incorporates one or more clauses by reference, with the same force and effect as if they were given in full text. Where "flow-down" to the Bidder is appropriate and applicable, references to "USAID" or "Department of State" shall be interpreted to mean "IRI", "Recipient" to mean "Contractor", and "Subrecipient" to mean "the Bidder". Included by reference are 2 C.F.R. 200 and USAID Standard Provisions for Non-US Non-governmental Organizations/US Department of State Standard Terms and Conditions.
