Background

The International Republican Institute (IRI) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, organization dedicated to advancing freedom and democracy worldwide. Since 1983, IRI has worked to develop democratic institutions and ideals, carrying out a variety of international programs to promote freedom, self-government and the rule of law worldwide. IRI provides technical assistance in the areas of political party strengthening, developing civic institutions and open elections, promoting democratic governance and advancing the rule of law.

The Republic of Kosovo ensures gender equality as a fundamental value for the democratic development of the society, based on its Constitution, article 7, point 2, and the Law on Gender Equality No. 05/L -020, that determines the general and specific measures to ensure and protect the equal rights of men and women and defines the institutions responsible and their competencies. However, not all laws in Kosovo align fully with the Law on Gender Equality.

As part of the commitments for the Summit for Democracy, the Republic of Kosovo made a commitment toward initiating proceedings to harmonize all relevant laws with the provisions of the law on gender equality, to guarantee women's rightful place in public institutions and decision-making roles.

The International Republican Institute (IRI) will support the Office of the President in analyzing Kosovo's legal framework to identify gender equality laws in need of amendment and will assist in drafting a guiding document for the amendments needed. IRI will then present its findings to the Office of the President, Members of the Assembly of the Republic of Kosovo, the political parties, the Gender Equality Working Group within the Council for Democracy and Human Rights and all other relevant stakeholders.

IRI will support this activity by recruiting an expert who will be responsible for analyzing the legislative framework and providing recommendations on the legislative steps to be undertaken and other technical support and guidance as needed throughout the process

- Draft the first concept paper for the relevant legal reform, including concrete proposal for amendments of the provisions selected as priority in consultation with IRI, the Office of the President and the Gender Equality Working Group.
- Hold consultations with political parties, Members of the Assembly of the Republic of Kosovo, and relevant stakeholders, as requested by the Office of the President, to finalize the concept paper that will serve as the backbone for the legal harmonization and amendments.
- Submit and present the final draft of the concept paper to the Office of the President, the Council for Democracy and Human Rights, and the Members of the Assembly, the political parties, the Gender Equality Working Group, and other relevant stakeholders.

Evaluation and Award Process

1. IRI may contact any Bidder for clarification or additional information, but Bidders are advised that IRI intends to evaluate the offers based on the written proposals, without discussions, and reserves the right to make decisions based solely on the information provided with the initial proposals. IRI may but is not obligated to conduct additional negotiations with the most highly rated Bidders prior to award of a contract, and may at its sole discretion elect to issue contracts to one or more Bidders.
2. Mathematical errors will be corrected in the following manner: If a discrepancy exists between the total price proposed and the total price resulting from multiplying the unit price by the corresponding amounts, then the unit price will prevail and the total price will be corrected. If there is a discrepancy between the numbers written out in words and the amounts in numbers, then the amount expressed in words will prevail. If the Bidder does not accept the correction, the offer will be rejected.
3. IRI may determine that a proposal is unacceptable if the prices proposed are materially unbalanced between line items or sub-line items. Unbalanced pricing exists when, despite an acceptable total evaluated price, the price of one or more contract line items is significantly overstated or understated as indicated by the application of cost or price analysis techniques. A proposal may be rejected if IRI determines that the lack of balance poses an unacceptable risk.

4. IRI will conduct a source selection based as follows:
IRI intends to make an award to the responsible Bidder based on the following evaluation factors:
  - a) Technical evaluation, (including technical capabilities, proposed technical approach, and personnel qualifications) – 40 percent
  - b) Price – 60 percent

IRI intends to evaluate Bidders' proposals in accordance with these factors and make an award to the responsible Bidder whose proposal is most advantageous to the program.

5. If a cost realism analysis is performed, cost realism may be considered in evaluating performance or price.
