Background:

The International Republican Institute (IRI) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, organization dedicated to advancing freedom and democracy worldwide. Since 1983, IRI has worked to develop democratic institutions and ideals, carrying out a variety of international programs to promote freedom, self-government and the rule of law worldwide. IRI provides technical assistance in the areas of political party strengthening, developing civic institutions and open elections, promoting democratic governance and advancing the rule of law.

Bridging Resources and Institutions for Grassroots Advancement of Diverse Civil Society Organizations (BRIGADO) responds to the urgent need for fostering collaboration, capacity, and inclusivity within Brazilian civil society, so CSOs can advocate on behalf of marginalized groups

BRIGADO is a multifaceted initiative aimed at establishing meaningful partnerships between IRI and CSOs representing marginalized communities in Brazil. The primary focus is on CSOs dedicated to upholding democratic values and human rights, while actively working to enhance inclusivity within the Brazilian democratic framework and reduce polarization. The heart of BRIGADO lies in its collaborative efforts with CSOs, driven by a commitment to equip them with the essential skills, tools, and connections required for crafting effective and sustainable advocacy strategies. Through meticulous planning and execution, CSOs will not only gain access to these resources but will also learn to utilize them on behalf of the marginalized groups they represent.

Period of Performance:

September 01, 2024, through May 30, 2025

Eligibility: Individuals

- Five years of Experience working with CSOs in-country
- Working experience with diverse CSOs.
- Professional fluency in Portuguese and English

Statement of Work:

The contractor will execute parts of project implementation and manage in-country logistics, enabling rapid program start-up and minimal administrative burden. The contractor will engage with IRI's subaward partners and CSOs beneficiaries. The contractor will also provide logistical assistance in securing venues and local expert trainers/facilitators and consultants needed for the implementation of activities. Finally, the contractor will coordinate with subaward partners, ensuring that program activities and deliverables are completed and effective.

Detailed services:

- Conduct in person interviews with selected CSOs and present the findings for IRI/Brazil needs-based assessment for CSOs. The contractor will travel to each CSOs locality and report on each interview and the findings on the organization's needs. (Activity 1)
- Arrange the logistics for the focus group discussions with CSOs. (Activity 2). The contractor will attend and provide a report based on his/her observations including topics discussed, results and/or takeaways from the focus groups.
- Develop the work plan and workshop curricula for each organization in collaboration with IRI. (Activity 3)
- Organize logistics for 10 workshops directed to each CSO's needs. Such logistics include finding the trainer, organizing with the CSO for the dates, and location of the workshop. Customize workshop content to address the specific needs and challenges faced by the CSOs. (Activity 4). Submit written report on key events and meetings, including IRI program activities, in the organization of each CSO's Workshop.
- Provide guidance and mentorship support as needed to CSOs participants as they develop and implement their remote civil engagement forums. Provide expert advice on best practices in civic engagement, digital tools, and community outreach. Then attend the Civil Engagement Forums and report on the results of the CSO's public engagement forums. (Activity 6)

Technical Bid:

All bids submitted to IRI must include:

1. Proposal must be structured in phases.
2. Electronic submissions only.
3. The budgeted rate must be inclusive of labor time and all required travel and incidental expenses for the contractor.

Technical attachments required:

- Background on the individuals past performance on projects of similar scope of work and experience working civil society groups in Brazil.
  - CVs of local facilitators.

RFQ Terms and Conditions:

1. Prospective Bidders are requested to review clauses incorporated by reference in the section "Notice Listing Contract Clauses Incorporated by Reference".
2. IRI may reject any or all bids if such is within IRI's interest.
3. Payment will be made upon receipt of detailed invoices and deliverables/services.
4. Proof of costs incurred, such as but not limited to receipts, pictures and financial documents may be requested during and for up to three years after the end of the contract period.
5. The Bidder's initial bid should contain the Bidder's best offer.
6. IRI reserves the right to make multiple contracts or partial contracts if, after considering administrative burden, it is in IRI's best interest to do so.
7. Discussions with Bidders following the receipt of a bid do not constitute a rejection or counteroffer by IRI.

8. IRI will hold all submissions as confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties. IRI reserves the right to share bids internally, across divisions, for the purposes of evaluating the bids.
9. By submitting a bid, Bidder agrees to comply with all terms, conditions, and provisions included in the solicitation and agreement to the services identified above and will specifically identify any disagreement with or exceptions to the terms, conditions, and provisions.
10. Bidders confirm that the prices in the bid/proposal/application/quote have been arrived at independently, without any consultation, communication, or agreement with any other bidder or competitor for the purpose of restricting competition.
11. By applying to this RFQ, applicant is certifying that if it is awarded a contract, none of funds payable under the resulting contract will be used to (1) procure or obtain, extend or renew a contract to procure or obtain; (2) enter into a contract (or extend or renew a contract) to procure; or (3) obtain the equipment, services, or systems that uses covered telecommunications equipment or services as a substantial or essential component of any system, or as critical technology as part of any system in compliance with the National Defense Authorization Act. Covered telecommunications equipment and services mean any of the following:
  - a. Telecommunications equipment produced by Huawei Technologies Company or ZTE Corporation (or any subsidiary or affiliate of such entities).
  - b. For the purpose of public safety, security of government facilities, physical security surveillance of critical infrastructure, and other national security purposes, video surveillance and telecommunications equipment produced by Hytera Communications Corporation, Hangzhou Hikvision Digital Technology Company, or Dahua Technology Company (or any subsidiary or affiliate of such entities).
  - c. Telecommunications or video surveillance services provided by such entities or using such equipment.
  - d. Telecommunications or video surveillance equipment or services produced or provided by an entity that the Secretary of Defense, in consultation with the Director of the National Intelligence or the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, reasonably believes to be an entity owned or controlled by, or otherwise connected to, the government of a covered foreign country. (2 CFR 200.216).
12. Bidders agree to disclose as part of the bid submission:
  - a. Any close, familial, or financial relationships with IRI staff and agents. For example, the bidder must disclose if a bidder's mother conducts volunteer trainings for IRI.
  - b. Any family or financial relationship with other bidders submitting bids. For example, if the bidder's father owns a company that is submitting another bid, the bidder must state this.
  - c. Any other action that might be interpreted as potential conflict of interest.

Evaluation and Award Process:

1. Bids will be evaluated by IRI for compliance with administrative requirements, recent and relevant past performance and experience in performing of similar projects by the Bidder, technical capabilities and proposed technical approach, the qualifications of the personnel for the project, and price. IRI may contact any Bidder for clarification or additional information, but Bidders are advised that IRI intends to evaluate the offers based on the written bids and reserves the right to make decisions based solely on the information provided with the initial bids. IRI may but is not obligated to conduct additional negotiations with the most highly rated Bidders prior to award of a contract and may at its sole discretion elect to issue contracts to one or more Bidders.

2. Mathematical errors will be corrected in the following manner: If a discrepancy exists between the total price proposed and the total price resulting from multiplying the unit price by the corresponding amounts, then the unit price will prevail and the total price will be corrected. If there were a discrepancy between the numbers written out in words and the amounts in numbers, then the amount expressed in words will prevail. If the Bidder does not accept the correction, the offer will be rejected.
3. IRI may determine that a bid is unacceptable if the prices proposed are materially unbalanced between line items or sub-line items. Unbalanced pricing exists when, despite an acceptable total evaluated price, the price of one or more contract line items is significantly overstated or understated as indicated by the application of cost or price analysis techniques. A bid may be rejected if IRI determines that the lack of balance poses an unacceptable risk.
4. IRI will conduct a source selection based as follows:

IRI intends to make an award to the responsible Offeror based on the following evaluation factors:

- a) Technical evaluation, (including technical capabilities, proposed technical approach, and personnel qualifications) – 30 percent
  - Level of certification or education related to working with CSOs – 15 percent
  - Professional fluency in Portuguese and English – 15 percent
- b) Past performance and experience in performing similar projects – 30 percent
  - Level of experience conducting interviews – 15 percent
  - Level of experience working with government and/or civil society – 15 percent
- c) Compliance with security and other administrative requirements – 10 percent
- d) Price – 30 percent

IRI intends to evaluate Offerors' proposals in accordance with these factors and make an award to the responsible Offeror whose proposal is most advantageous to the program.

5. If a cost realism analysis is performed, cost realism may be considered in evaluating performance or price.

Submission Instructions:

Bids must be submitted via email to Humberto Collado, at hcollado@iri.org with the subject line "LAC2024BR03o – Local Facilitator" by the deadline listed above.

IRI Obligations

Issuance of this RFQ does not constitute a contractual commitment on the part of IRI, nor does it commit IRI to pay for costs incurred in the preparation and submission of a bid.

Notice Listing Contract Clauses Incorporated by Reference

IRI is required to make the Bidder subject to the clauses of the prime award. The resulting agreement incorporates one or more clauses by reference, with the same force and effect as if they were given in full text. Where “flow-down” to the Bidder is appropriate and applicable, references to “USAID” or “Department of State” shall be interpreted to mean “IRI”, “Recipient” to mean “Contractor”, and “Subrecipient” to mean “the Bidder”. Included by reference are 2 C.F.R. 200 and USAID Standard Provisions for Non-US Non-governmental Organizations/US Department of State Standard Terms and Conditions.
